WARM RUN BY THE DEEP RUN CLUB

The Chase Through Chantilly, Around the Bend, a Fine One.

E. B. SYDNOR ACTING M. H.

Will Have a Run on the Morning of Thanksgiving Day.

It was often said of the run of the Deep Run Hunt Club yesterday that it was a warm one at first and the further it went the warmer it grew.

A large field appeared at Chantilly, ready to ride after the master. But the master, on account of indisposition, was unable to take charge of the hunt and Mr. E. B. Sydnor acted in his stead. Mr.
Sydnor filled the position most ably and his care in protecting the laggard hounds from injury by any too eager huntsman was appreciated by the field.

The hounds were sent away promptly.
They found in the Leonard Heights field just to the east of Chantilly and were soon tearing across the fields of the latter estate. Huntsmen lost but little time in pressing after them and those who watched from vehicles enjoyed the rather rare experience of witnessing the mile run of a pack in full cry with a large field of sportsmen, several in pink, following closely upon their heels over fence and ditch. The first check came early.
Immediately after leaving Chantilly, the hounds were then taken up the Broad Street Road until upon reaching the field to the south of Westwood, the scent of the drag was again discovered. A wide circle around this field furnished plenty of galloping but no jumping and left the hunt once more on the Broad Street road for the second check.

A Fence Ahoy!

Still traveling westward, the hunt pursued its way. Suddenly, at Ashburner's, the opening note of the leader of the pack gave a warning to all to tighten the seat in his saddle, and (timely) a fence near hundreds of yards been put behind them hearts began to quiver, for in the distance loomed a fence of good, stout logs, and each one lashed to unbending trunks of an old Virginia pine. The agony was shared by each mount, proved the confidence of master was well placed. A short gallop, through the woods, with the constant dodging of treacherous switches, brought the field to Bethlehem Church. In getting over the fence, near this point, Mr. Elington's mare was unfortunate, and hung astride the bars.
After some little delay she was extricated, and proved to be unhurt. A check from the church to the Deep Run road was well received by everybody. But after this there was no rest. The hounds broke all their earlier records as they dashed at maddening pace on towards Johnson's woods and under the low hanging branches of wild riding makes.
John Gilpin, there were many John Gil-pins dashing through these woods. The horses' necks were all caressed with, if not a fond, at least a clinging embrace.
The hunt then emerged from the woods in the rear of the house, and after a ride over the hurdles on the grounds, all was over.

The Social Side.

The following ladies served tea and cakes and received the guests: Mrs. Otway Allen, Mrs. C. E. Bolling, Mrs. S. D.
Crenshaw, Mrs. G. B. Hobson, Misses Aikinson, Harris, Watkins, Leary, Robinson and Crump.

Among the riders were the following gentlemen: Messrs. E. B. Sydnor, acting master; W. O. Young, L. R. Page, W. O.
Nutting, R. H. Ellington, B. S. Forbes, A.
C. Hobson, St. George Bryan, Archer Anderson, Jr., J. R. J. Anderson, Dr. J. A.
White, W. E. Buford, A. S. Buford, Jr., and others.

A large crowd was at the club house, including Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hutchings, Mrs.
G. A. Davenport, Mrs. Calvin Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pinckney, Miss Nellie Davenport, Miss Mamie Davenport, Miss Frances Scott, Miss Rutherford, Miss Tyson, Messrs. F. W. Christian, G. J.
Seay, James A. Graves, W. M. Habington, John E. Palmer, George Reid, Dr. Henry W. Cook and many others.

It has been decided by the M. F. H. and the chairman of the Hunt Committee to have a hunt at 11 o'clock on the morning of Thanksgiving Day. The meet will be at the Reservoir. Efforts are now being made to obtain a red fox for this special hunt and it is hoped that somebody can possibly do so, is urged to turn out. A cold lunch will be served at the club house after the run.

TO DO BIGGER WORK.

An Important Addition to be Erected to Christ Church.

There was a mass meeting of the congregation of Christ Church on Friday night to hear the report of the Building Committee and to view the plans for the new addition to the church, which building, which the Building Committee hope to have ready for occupancy by this time next year. The plans drawn by Mr. W. B. Newell, call for a two-story and basement building; to occupy the site of present Sunday school building and running back across the rear end of the rectory's lot. The basement will be for gymnasium and bathing; the first or main floor is to be devoted entirely to Sunday school purposes, being divided into large class rooms and class stalls. The second floor will be devoted to general parish purposes, special and ample accommodations being arranged for the large and active organization of the church—the Young Men's Brotherhood. The Men's Bible Class will also be on this floor.

Coming Committee Meetings.

uled to meet in the City Hall during the coming week:

BIG CROWD SEES HORSE SHOW END

The Attendance During the Week
Has Beaten All Records
Since 1892.

VANDERBILT SUFFERS LOSS

Millionaire's Team of Browns Beaten by Jordan, of Boston.

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, November 19.—The attendance at the Horse Show in Madison Square Garden this week has broken all records for the show since 1892, the number of persons present in the six days exceeding 75,000.

The usual crowds were in evidence this fact that closing day is generally marked afternoon, and to-night, in spite of the by noticeably lessened interest. The principal event of the afternoon was what is known as the big "pig-pen" jump. This is an in and out jump for hunters, and nearly all of the best fences were entered. The "pig-pen" is thirty feet square and four feet six inches in height.
The jumping must be over the fence into the enclosure and then out again. On the return the jump is into the enclosure and out over the side rail. Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., made nearly a clean sweep in this event, her horses taking first, second and third ribbons. Her hunter, Kingsman, won first prize and her Tamor and Jove King were second and third.
The senior class of the West Point Military Academy was present during the afternoon.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt suffered a severe fall with his team of browns, High Tide and Portia late in the afternoon, when in competition for the National Horse Show gold, challenged out of valued at $50, he was beaten by Eben D. Jordan, of Boston.

The class of ponies other than Shet-lands, not exceeding thirteen hands, had four entries, and Miss Anna Held won the blue ribbon with her ponies, Jack and Jill.

Miss Fayline Hall, with her Shetland ponies, Ura and Ueba won a white ribbon in the Shetland class, driven to harness.

HAD A PROUD PLACE.

Virginia at the Very Front in the New York Horse Show.

Virginia's pre-eminence in jumpers and hunters remains unchallenged, and the New York Horse Show has been another notable triumph for the "leppers" of the Old Dominion.

The show opened with a free-for-all class on Monday morning, in which fifty jumpers, the cream of the show ring and hunting field, took part. Among the notables competing were the Canadian high jumpers, Blue Girl, Senator and Pearl, all of which have records over six feet.

Cross & Murray's great mare, Conquette, and Onorio, a striking thoroughbred, since sold to Mr. Dietrich for $700, both of which are consistent performers above six feet, also started.

Free Lance, Buck, Jack Frost, Little Duke, exhibited by S. J. Holloway, and Chapple Lee Up-Date, Tip Top, Lucy Sutherland, Garnett Ripple, exhibited by Courtland Smith, are all well known in Richmond, as brilliant performers. In addition to this array of winners of bushes of blue ribbons, were the magnificent thoroughbreds Toussie King, Kingman, Tamor, and Jove King, shown by Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr. These horses were trained, schooled and groomed to the minute, and had all the conformation that royal parentage could give.
The class narrowed down to five, and of these number Jove King was first, and Eleanor second, while Lucy Sutherland, Breeze and Hart Bros' Sir Roderick third and fourth. Altogether fifty started, and winning in such company was test of merit that left many a good one dead on the field of valor.

The next jumping class was for middleweight qualified hunters, which was won by Garnett Ripple in good style, beating Mrs. Hitchcock's Tamor, who was second. Charles Pifer's Green Fellow and George Pepper's Blue Girl were third and fourth.

In the ladies' qualified hunter class Garnett Ripple was second, Eleanor third and Blue Girl fourth. This time Tamor won.

Sir Roderick, a big gray gelding, without much style or conformation, got the decision in the heavyweight hunter class.
Eleanor was second, Gorn third and Galway fourth.

In the thoroughbred hunter class, Tamor, Mrs. Hitchcock's great hunter, won again, with Garnett Ripple second, Onorio third and Black Flair fourth.

In the lightweight hunter class, Courtland Smith's "Colonel Hawkins" took the blue.

In the five foot class the Canadian got the first two ribbons, with Conquette and Onorio; Mr. Holloway's Jack Frost got third, and S. Russell Smith's Gracie Jack, after a brilliant performance which entitled him to more, got fourth.

The most brilliant performance was the winning of the hunt team competition by the Cameron Run Hunt. Mr. Smith's Garnett Ripple, Lucy Sutherland and Chapple Lee easily outclassing the other New York hunt clubs in appointments, jumping and conformation.

The record made by Virginia is altogether highly gratifying to all lovers of horseflesh.

CIRCUIT COURT HAD A BUSY DAY

West Virginia Bankrupt Case Engages Judge's Attention.

TWO SUITS FOR TO-MORROW

One Comes From Asheville, the Other From Raleigh.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reconvened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with Circuit Judges Goff and Pritchard and District Judge Brawley presiding.

The entire morning session was taken up with the hearing of bankruptcy cases: No. 622, J. B. Crim, et al., appellants, John F. Woodford, trustee of Jacob M.
Proudfoot, bankrupt, appellee. Appeal from the District Court at Clarksburg, W. Va. Argued by Melville Peck, of Phillippi, W. Va., and John Bassel, of Clarksburg, W. Va., for the appellants, and by J. Hop. Woods and W. T. George, of Phillippi, W. Va., for the appellees and submitted.

At the close of the argument the court went into a conference session to confer as to the disposition of the cases argued during the week.

Policeman's Club and Pistol.

The policeman in a street scrap generally endeavors to make use of his club as a primary means of defense, and resorts to his pistol only when it is absolutely necessary. It frequently happens that at the moment when the officer of the law decides that he must make use of the shooter, he is not always able to get it, being too busy in warding off the blows of his adversary in the little contest which he has on hand. His pistol under these circumstances is as useless as if it were miles away, and for the purpose of answering an emergency, so that an emergency may do so by fitting and other, desiring to be armed for any loading the cylinder.

Will Elect a Deacon.

There will be interesting special services at Venable Street Baptist Church to-day.
At the morning service Rev. Mr. Buchanan will speak after which a deacon will be elected to succeed the late William H. Knapp.

The pastor will preach at night.

Will Elect Officers.

The regular meeting of the Local Assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be held in Grace Church lecture room tomorrow evening at 8:15 o'clock. Election of officers for the ensuing year will take place.

Baptist in Methodist Pulpit.

Rev. T. H. Athey, pastor of College Hill Baptist Church, Lynchburg, Va., will preach at Union Station Methodist Church this morning at 11 o'clock.

MR. LEE LORRAINE IS NOW PRESIDENT

Post A Chooses Well Known Merchant to Succeed Mr.
Gillis—The Jefferson.

A called meeting of Post A, the Travelers' Protective Association, was held last night at their headquarters. Mr.
Thomas Polindexter presided.

The object of this meeting was to accept the resignations of President Gillis and Vice-President Clarence Sydnor. Mr.
Jorace F. Smith nominated Mr. H. Lee Lorraine for president for the unexpired term, and Mr. Lorraine was unanimously elected. Mr. H. Ellis, Jr., was elected vice-president. Mr. Lorraine having been chairman of the Employment Committee, his place was declared vacant, and Mr.
M. C. Patterson was elected to fill the position.

After the election of officers the subject of rebuilding the Jefferson Hotel was discussed freely, and as the board of directors had this matter in charge, it was unanimously adopted that the old membership heartily approve of the board's action in regard to this matter.

HIS HEART TOUCHED.

Justice John Does Things That Go Against the Grain.

Justice John's heart was touched several times yesterday, but he had to carry out the rules as laid down in Volume IX of the by-laws and constitution of the Police Court.

In the first place there was a frail woman who had her husband arrested for cruelty. She had four small children to care for, and while her husband under ordinary conditions was a good man, he was no good under the influence of drink. When he got drunk he was something else, and the wife and children suffered accordingly.

The man was sent down to sober up, and then Bailiff Gibbons passed around the hat, and a goodly sum was raised for the wife and children.

Pink Jones, colored, was fined $35 and given twelve months' security for shooting at William March because he was being entertained by Pink's wife.
Jeremiah Turner, colored, an old habi-tue of the jail, was released a few days ago. He didn't want to be released and demurred, but the demurrer was overruled. So Isaiah set about a plan to get even. He got drunk again and was arrested thirty days so that he would have a chance to celebrate Thanksgiving at home.
